65 IN RACE FOR STATE OFFICES

36 Republicans and 29 Democrats Seek Nominations.

13 FILE FOR GOVERNORSHIP

List of Candidates Largest in History of State.

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — The largest list of candidates for nomination to state offices in the history of Ohio will be voted on at the primary elections on August 8. Friday was the last day for candidates to file petitions and a check today showed that exactly 65 candidates had weighed in for the primary. Of this number 36 were Republicans and 29 were Democrats. Thirteen are in the gubernatorial race, including nine Republicans and four Democrats, establishing a record for that office. The previous high total number of candidates to enter a primary election in Ohio was 49. The large number of candidates undoubtedly will bring about one of the hardest fought primary campaigns ever witnessed in Ohio, in the opinion of politicians, who are reluctant in forecasting the outcome of various battles.

LATE DEMOCRATIC ENTRIES

Two Democrats who were defeated in 1916 for offices which they seek again, filed last night. John J. Lentz, of Columbus, president of the American Insurance Union and former Congressman, will oppose United States Senator Pomerene for the Democratic senatorial nomination. Pomerene defeated Lentz six years ago. A. P. Sandles, of Ottawa, defeated by former Governor Cox for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in 1916, will try again. The filing of J. H. Newman, of Columbus, former state librarian for the Democratic nomination for sec-

RAILWAY TRACKS WASHED OUT BY CLOUDBURST

ZANESVILLE — A cloudburst which struck north and east of Zanesville last night washed out the tracks of the Pennsylvania, Baltimore and Ohio and Wheeling and Lake Erie roads and all traffic was abandoned for several hours. The W. & L. E. suffered the greatest damage, almost a mile of its track being destroyed between here and Dresden.

NEWBERRY CASE MAY REOPEN

New Evidence Claimed by Group in Senate.

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — A movement to reopen the Newberry case is now under way in the senate.

An insurgent group has been formed in a search for new evidence to connect more closely Truman H. Newberry with the large expenditures in the Michigan primary in 1918. New evidence in the case— not presented in the Michigan court fight, on in the senate investigation—already has been discovered, according to a senator back of the move.

If expectations of the investigators are fulfilled a motion may be presented in the senate, asking that the case be reconsidered. Practically every senator has been informed that the group is preparing for action.

A Democratic group favors pushing the matter. Others, including the leaders of the movement, want to wait until the next session of congress when they believe a number of Newberry supporters may be reduced. The movement has been greatly encouraged by the progressive victories in Indiana, Pennsylvania and Iowa, primaries. In Iowa, colonel Brookhart is pledged to vote for a reopening of the case. The administration group has heard of the proceedings despite efforts to conceal them temporarily.

PEACE IN IRELAND BELIEVED NEAR

Negotiations at London Progressing Satisfactorily.

FRONTIER ROW SETTLED

Republican Army to Withdraw From North.

LONDON — (Associated Press) — So much optimism regarding the progress of the Irish negotiations is felt in government quarters that it is believed Colonial Secretary Churchill will be able to make his statement on the position next Monday when the house of commons re-assembles after its Whitsuntide recess.

The main questions which created difficulties when the draft of the Irish constitution was first submitted are now understood to have been settled satisfactorily with the technical matters still under examination on a fair way to adjustment.

ANXIETIES QUIETED — The Ulster frontier trouble has been smoothed away, temporarily at least, and Michael Collins' speech in Dublin last night is taken here as an indication that the southern leaders are determined to avoid anything likely to keep the wound open. Nothing further has been heard from Collins' protest over the occupation of Pettigo by the military and it is inferred that the British government has given assurances acceptable to Dublin.

Latest reports tend to confirm that the Belisk operation was bloodless, as claimed by the government, no trace of any Republican loss having been discovered. This has apparently quieted some of the anxieties in Dublin, where trouble on the frontier is in no wise desired and where it is believed its continuance would have the worst effect on conditions in Belfast.

SOUTHERN SENATORS RALLY TO BONUS BILL

WASHINGTON — Southern and western senators today rallied to the support of the McCumber soldier bonus bill, with a demand that it be brought up for early consideration in the senate.

Practically unanimous support from senators from 17 western and inter-mountain states was pledged to the bill following inclusion as an amendment of the McNary $350,000,000 reclamation project which also is added as another compensation feature for veterans.

FATHER OF WARD IS HUNTED

Slayer's Parent Disappears When Subpoena is Issued.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. — (Associated Press) — Sheriff's deputies today were searching for George S. Ward and Ralph D. Ward, father and brother of Walter S. Ward, confessed slayer of Clarence Peters, ex-sailor.

Subpoenas for Ward's father and brother were issued yesterday but they had left the elder Ward's home a few hours before the servers appeared.

The authorities want to question the father of Walter S. Ward regarding the blackmail plot, said by his son to have caused the killing of Peters in a fight on the Kensico reservoir road May 16.

The reasons for the reported message from Ward to his son—"Not a cent for blackmail, but I will spend $75,000 to put the gang in jail"—are desired by the county officials, who want to learn just how much money has been paid the blackmailers and who made the demands.

"JACK" DISCHARGED — PHILADELPHIA. — (Associated Press) — John Cenzo of Wakefield, Mass., arrested here last week on suspicion of being the mysterious "Jack" wanted by New York authorities in connection with the killing of Clarence Peters by Walter S. Ward, has been discharged.

PRINTS IN BLOOD CLUE TO SLAYER

Finger Marks May Solve Jackson Murder Mystery.

FOUND ON HANDLE OF AX

Suspects in Miss Mallett's Death Are Grilled.

JACKSON, Mich. — (United Press) — Finger prints on the blood-marked handle of the axe used to murder Miss Alice Mallett, girl's home matron, here Thursday, today were looked upon as the sole means of establishing a clue to the identification of the fiend.

Bloodhounds today lost a trail they had followed into a bog north of the city.

Traces of the suspect, followed into the swamp, disappeared about the same spot that Warden Bordner, of the state prison here, and a young woman were chopped to death three years ago by Harry Bushnell, an escaped convict.

SWAMP SCoured

Besides the "ounds, hundreds of men were beating thru the swamp at daylight this morning. In a fan shape the posse was rapidly piercing thru the swamp.

Several suspects taken in the city were grilled and their finger prints taken by Captain I. H. Harmon, of the state constabulary.

Robert Brockie, beside whose home the body mutilated body of Miss Mallett was found, was released late last night, police being satisfied he would appear as a material witness and had told all he knew.

Miss Mallett has a mother and sister living at Ontario, Ore. She was formerly employed as a director of a Y. W. C. A. cafeteria in Bay City.

ROTARIANS ELECT HAYENS — LOS ANGELES. — Raymond Hayens, Kansas City, was chosen president of the International Association of Rotary clubs at the thirteenth annual convention here.

SEX PREDETERMINED BY MEANS OF X-RAY

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. — Predetermination of the sex of offspring by means of the X-ray has been successfully accomplished by Professor James W. Mavor, of Union College. Experimenting in the laboratory on the eggs of the banana-fly, he has succeeded in altering the sex. The result of the X-ray application to the eggs was the production of males where females naturally would have occurred. In announcing his results in a lecture to the Union College alumni, Professor Mavor recalled himself skeptical of the practical application of his discoveries to the human species.

DOCTORS OPPOSE PROHIBITION

Swedish Medical Board Takes Stand in Dry Campaign.

STOCKHOLM — (Associated Press) — "To deprive the majority of citizens, who do not misuse alcoholic liquors, of what is for them an innocent stimulant because a smaller number of people abuse liquor, seems to be rather a draconic decree."

This opinion is found in the official report just issued by the Medical Board of Sweden on the proposed introduction of total prohibition. It has aroused intense interest, throughout the country which is now in the midst of a nation-wide conflict between the prohibition forces and those who want to maintain the present so-called Biatt rationing system, whereby only those who have openly shown their abuse of alcoholics are deprived of its use. Sweden will vote on the liquor question August 27, of this year.

The Medical Board points out further that a large number of physicians believe that under certain circumstances, and in the case of certain diseases, alcohol cannot be dispensed with without great disadvantages, and it says that not only the fatal consequences of the abuse of alcohol should be considered, but also those effects that cannot be characterized as harmful.

UNIONS PREPARE FOR BATTLE

Nation is Warned of "Acute Industrial Crisis."

RESULT OF COAL, RAIL ROWS

Challenge to Organizations' "Foes" is Issued.

CINCINNATI — (United Press) — The nation is confronting one of the most acute industrial crises in its history, responsible leaders of organized labor warned here today, as they gathered for the convention of the American Federation of Labor. They sounded a rallying cry to the country's workers as a challenge and a warning to labor's foes and as appeal to the whole American people, as they announced their intention of grappling in a constructive way in their convention with the economic problems facing them.

The elements in the critical industrial situation, which in the opinion of labor leaders will have a profound and harmful effect on the country's future if it is not met squarely, courageously and intelligently now, are the coal strike, the impending railroad strike, the disposition of some employers to force wage cuts on labor while refusing to labor prices, the lack of sympathy and intelligence in congress and official circles.

CALL FOR UNITY

"Men of labor," said Samuel Gompers, American Federation of Labor, in a stirring call for unity, "now is the time that tries our souls. We must be true to ourselves and to each other if we hope to fulfill our mission. If we are not true, we will go back to the dark ages of involuntary servitude. That must not be. As Joffre rallied the allied hosts with the cry to the enemy: 'They shall not pass,' so the organized workers should take up the slogan against labor's foes, thus far you have gone but you shall not pass."

AUNTS SAVE GIRL FROM DEATH

Wade Into Hoyer's Lake to Rescue 8-Year-Old Child.

IS REVIVED WITH PULMOTOR

Fatality Prevented by Quick Action of a Physician.

Ruth Houston, eight-year-old daughter of Thomas Houston, 823 Weadock-av., was saved from drowning in Hoyer's lake Friday afternoon thru heroic efforts of two aunts, who waded into the water and pulled her out as she was going under a third time. The relatives are Misses Rose and Catherine Houston, New York, who are visiting here.

The girl was only a few feet from the bank, but she stepped into a hole, and sank below the surface before a horrified group of young playmates, with whom she had gone to Hoyer's park for an outing.

PULMOTOR USED

Coroner A. C. Adams was summoned. The hundred or more persons who congregated at the lake it appeared the girl was dead, but thru use of a pulmotor, Dr. Adams revived her, and she was taken to her home in an ambulance. She escaped death by the narrowest possible margin, the physician said.

The women happened to the lake by mere accident, strolling there to watch the children at play. They reached the park as the shrill cries of the youngsters burst out in first alarm. They were the only grown-ups in the vicinity at the time, according to information obtained by Patrolman Pollock of the police force.

A run of a quarter-mile was made by Pollock, with the pulmotor, necessary because the portion of the park in which the near-drowning occurred is blocked by lumber and other material and is surrounded about a half mile to be taken.

OBSTACLES ENCOUNTERED

Coroner Adams was carried on the shoulders of Robert Clutter, ambulance driver, across a neck of water that separated them from the bank on which the girl lay, apparently dead. Difficulties in getting to the scene arose because of the shape of the lake, which is that of a huge "S."

Tom Houston, the girl's father, is employed at the Lima Locomotive Works.

ROAD CONTRACTS UNDER WAY

Work on Three of Five Projects Let Has Been Started.

Five state aid road contracts for a total mileage that is in excess of similar highways already existing in the county, are going forward in Allen-co, Grover Clements, division highway director declared. Their cost will be $539,768.28, half of which is paid by the state and federal governments.

When Clements at once, charge of the district a few months ago, Allen-co had 15 miles of state roads in widely scattered sections of the county. There were also paper plans for 55 miles more.

The mileage of state aid roads sold today amounts to more than 20 miles. Construction work has commenced on three of the five projects. Wet weather hampered the work for a time, but recently it has been inf forward with rapidity.

The sections let are the Elda-rd, Westminster-New Hampshire-rd, Section K, of the "A-Flindlay-rd, Sections L-1 and L-2, and Beaverdam, of the Lima Flindlay-rd, and four sections amounting to 3 miles on the so-called Marion-rd or Harding Highway.

Highway improvement is going forward on 29 roads in the eight counties in the division, Clements said.

HOLT CONVICTED

Found Guilty of Murdering Cincinnati Detective.

CINCINNATI—(Associated Press)—Noble "Red" Holt, tried on a charge of first degree murder of City Detective Frank Huettner, was found guilty by a jury this morning.

The jury did not recommend mercy, which means that Holt will be sentenced to death in the electric chair.

MONEY EASIER, COUNTY TREASURER DECLARES

Money is easier than a year ago, asserts County Treasurer Harry J. Botkin, whose collections as treasurer up to June 10, top collections a year ago by $13,000.

"The amount isn't great," he said, "but I believe that it indicates that money is easier. Taxes are usually the last thing a man pays. We are taking in money more rapidly since the reopening of work around the city."

Botkin will visit Harlan Monday for convenience of tax payers in that vicinity.

SCHOOL BOARD PROVIDES OUTING FOR 22 JANITORS

Twenty-two janitors employed by the Board of Education are spending the day Saturday at St. Mary's, in celebration of the first annual outing of the maintenance department of the city school system.

The outing was made possible thru the courtesy of the school board. Each year after this, on the first day after the school year closes officially, the janitors will be provided with an outing, the school board has decided.

"WE'RE FOR CLEAN SHAVES!" CRIES CITY OF BEARDS

COMPLICATIONS AROSE BY THE HUNDREDS.

CANT CUT 'EM OFF DEARIE. ITS AGAINST TH' LAW!

(BY GENE COHN)

SACRAMENTO, Cal. — (Special) You men who've been complaining about the hardship of the daily shave—

Who've been wishing you'd lived in cave-man days when razors and shaving cream—and cuts and slashes—were unknown—

Who've just about made up your minds to grow a gorilla brush—

Listen to a lesson from Sacramento. "There's nothing like a clean shave," says Sacramento, which, until the other day, hadn't had one in 12 weeks!

To give color to the "Days of 49" celebration here, the 6,000 adult males of Sacramento were ordered to grow beards in emulation of the hardy pioneers.

They obeyed—the chief of police as well as the enforcement officer, with 12 cops as aids, saw to that.

And now—with the celebration and the ban on beardlessness over—6,000 razors—safety and otherwise—are scraping 6,000 chins—and Sacramento is happy.

"There's nothing like the comfort of a shave," says Joseph Stephens, banker and Chamber of Commerce director, who grew a luxuriant crop of underbrush.

"Yes, the world is sold on a clean shave program," agrees City Manager Clyde M. Seaver, who had a good set of Lord Chesterfields.

FARM CLUBS ARE POPULAR

750 Boys and Girls in Auglaize Are Members.

More than 750 boys and girls have been enlisted in the club work fostered by the Auglaize-co farm bureau, C. M. Hampson, club leader, told farm bureau agents at a meeting here.

Club work has been under way for six years in Auglaize-co and a strong interest has been built up in it, he said. Pig and clothing clubs predominate, the county agents were told.

Farm bureau problems were discussed by W. H. Palmer, state boys' and girls' club leader; O. M. Johnson, state leader of county agents; W. E. Hancock, Ohio State university; and Miss Marie Sails, state leader of home demonstrations. A. J. Wilson, U. S. Department of Agriculture, was also present.

Farm agents at the meeting were Glen K. Rule, Van Wert-co, P. S. Hage, Hardin-co; H. L. Andrew, Auglaize-co; C. H. Anderson, Paulding-co; H. P. Cline, Logan-co, and H. J. Ridge, Allen-co.

ROBBERS GET LITTLE IN FRIDAY NIGHT HAULS

Two auto tires and $0 cents in cash was all robbers secured in early evening raids on two homes and a garage Friday night.

The tires were stolen from the auto livery of G. F. Sprague, 928 S. Elizabeth-st. and the money from the Allen Fruit company, 323 S. Main-st. A cash drawer was opened.

The Smith-Sherlock lumber company office, 370 S. Union-st., was visited, but nothing stolen. In each case entrance was gained by raising a window.

HUSBAND "SQUEALS"

BELLFAIRE, Ohio—Mrs. Victor Javich, arrested for selling liquor on complaint of her husband, was fined $100 and costs in police court Javich and his wife quarrelled, according to police, and he "squealed."

FATHER SENTENCED

CINCINNATI—George Duval, 45, North Bend, Ohio, began a three months' jail sentence here today for deserting his six children to conduct a revival for 21 days in Kentucky. The children, whose ages range from eight months to 12 years, were cared for by neighbors. The relatives caused Duval's arrest.

WOMAN ASPIRANT Because They Like to, Says Pretty Lady FOR OFFICE

Mrs. Loretta Durbin G. O. P. Candidate for Clerk.

O'CONNOR FOR PROSECUTOR

Eleventh Hour Surprises at Wire Drops at Midnight.

Mrs. Loretta Durbin, 770 Green-lawn-av., is the first woman in the history of Allen-co to seek nomination for county office. Her declaration of intention as a candidate for nomination as clerk of the court on the Republican ticket was filed late Friday night.

Her announcement put an end to speculation concerning who the G. O. P. would put forward to make the race against John T. Cotner, Democrat.

Mrs. Durbin is an active member of a number of Lima women's clubs and is also a member of the League of Women Voters.

Her candidacy proved a total surprise. As late as Friday afternoon, Republican leaders were unaware who would file for the nomination.

Other late filings were: Harry O'Connor, Democrat, for prosecuting attorney; William H. Shinn, Montpelier, Democrat for state senator and Dr. A. C. Adams, Republican for coroner. Adams is the present incumbent.

Declarations of O'Connor and Adams were expected, as both have been doing some preliminary campaigning.

Both parties are starting in the 60-day marathon with a complete lineup of candidates.

Active canvassing has been under way an d will be pressed with renewed vigor. Verbal pyrotechnics are beginning to illuminate the political sky.

The warmest race in prospect is that for nomination for sheriff. The Democrats have seven entries and the Republicans five.

All are busily engaged in button-holing the voters, men and women, and touring the county in house to house visits.

ACTIVITY OF WOMEN
Women voters promise to play a more important role than heretofore.

Primary election day is August 8. On the Democratic ticket there are contests for member of congress, state senator, member of the legislature, sheriff, county commissioner, county recorder, prosecuting attorney, coroner and judge of appeals court.

Republican voters will have to choose between two or more candidates for the offices of member of the state legislature, sheriff and probably judge of appeals court.

No Stopping Old Sol in Police Raid
Sol may radiate his choicest rays on the pates of Lima traffic cops, but they have no comeback. No, sir, nary a one.

It's all because cartrucks were not laid down with a vision into the future when gasoline was to supplant Old Dobbin as the chief means of locomotion.

The police department would gladly supply guardrails of the public safety with umbrellas to shed sunbeams as they stand at the Main-High and Market-Elizabeth-st. intersections, preventing jams and collisions, but there isn't room enough between the double tracks to accommodate sun shades.

Stationing the cops off to one side is not practicable—they must be in the center of the intersections, is the dictum. There is no plan at hand now to protect them, and unless some fertile brain arrives at a solution, the men are doomed for complexion like South Sea Islanders.

Exposed parts of their faces and necks now look like rich, juicy steaks. By August they should look like ripe raspberries. But no whinner is here.

"It's good for one," quoth Officer Bill Houtz as he industriously mopped the steam off his countenance after completing his "trick" Friday.

LOAN CONCERNS OF LIMA AND COLUMBUS ARE MERGED

Consolidation of the Solomon Mortgage Loan Co., of Lima, and the Columbus Mortgage Loan Co., of Columbus, will be effected at a meeting of the stockholders Friday night.

Business of the two companies will be conducted in the future under the name of the Colonial Finance Co., with a capitalization of $1,000,000. Former capitalization was $700,000.

Lima will have the main office of the corporation, with a branch at Columbus, in charge of Harry J. Solomon. Practically all of the stockholders are residents of northwestern Ohio.

Present offices will be considerably enlarged to care for the increased business of the company. This company buys and sells mortgages and other high grade investments. It does not make loans or carry on a general banking business.

PERRY FUNERAL SERVICES WILL BE HELD MONDAY

COLUMBUS — Funeral services for G. W. C. Perry, state superintendent of garden and parole, who died at a local hospital last night following an operation for a malignant infection, will be held at the Elks' Home in Chillicothe Monday afternoon. His body was taken to Chillicothe last night.

Mr. Perry's death came after a brief illness. He had been troubled with an infection of the middle ear for several weeks and had been undergoing treatment. His condition did not become serious, however, until Tuesday when he became bed-ridden. An operation was decided upon Thursday night as a last resort and while he rallied somewhat, his condition soon became worse and death resulted at 7:30 o'clock last night.

Confidential information, publication of which is permitted in the event that the name of the pretty young lady interviewed is not divulged, nothing short of denies the contention that rolled hose have gone out of existence.

"Fads? Hm-mph," said the exquisite little bobbed haired being who wore a strikingly attractive clinging silk dress of brilliant hue.

"We don't have a thing to do with fads any more. They must be of some use, or we won't tolerate them, that's all there is to it."

Her declaration was verified by the glimpse we got of a cool looking dimpled knee as she crossed her legs in an effort to reach a more comfortable position. And we immediately decided that rolled hose had no business being called a fad.

Any dance floor in the city on any night will give you more proof of this fact. For when milady is swished around by her handsomely masculine partner, flashes of pink are revealed just at that point where, if she were a he, a pair of Paris garters would grace the calf.

No—rolled hose are not a fad. Hose are rolled simply because some of the girls believe they are much more comfortable that way in the summertime. Those who like them rolled, roll 'em. Those who don't, don't.

And there you have the knockout blow for the "durn daff talk." To use the little lady's characterization of the thing.

Fads don't exist anymore, so far as the women are concerned, they claim. If a thing is comfortable, they're going to have it.

"You know old top," the flapperish informant continued, "I surprise me that a few women in this village of ours wear knickerbockers. They're just the most wonderful things in the world." Then she stretched her legs as if by way of imagining that she were wearing a pair at the time. She would have looked well in them.

And for the same reasons, they delight in the soothing effects a few puffs of a cigarette can have upon one. Of course, around here, the ladies do not smoke openly, on the streets, but—

"You ought to see them when they're alone," she said, shaking her fascinatingly dark bobbed tresses until they seemed to be living moving things. "Why, some of them can beat my dad all hollow when it comes to inhaling."

"Oh, that's easy," she smiled back. "Why does a man smoke? Simply because he likes it. Can't we do as we like?"

Then she looked at her wrist watch, uttered a sigh, smiled and said, "Don't use my name, old man, so long," and she left.

FEW CONTESTS IN AUGLAIZE
Filings for Primaries Promise Scarcity of Battles.

WAPAKONETA—Intra-party battles, with a few exceptions, seem to be passe in Auglaize-co for the primaries this year. In few cases has more than one candidate filed for an office in each party.

C. A. Kohl, Wapakoneta, Democrat, and Roy Hawkey, St. Marys, Republican, for recorder; John Gartley, Wapakoneta, Democrat, and George Shuster, Republican, New Knoxville, for surveyor; Jacob Shraglie, Wapakoneta, Democrat, and Bob Ewing, Wapakoneta, Republican, for sheriff; Guy Campbell, Union-twp, Democrat, and John W. Brackley, Clay-twp, Republican, for commissioner; leave party nominations uncontested thus far.

Florin W. Smith, Wapakoneta and Herman Brandewie, Jackson-twp, will try for the Democrat nomination for representative while L. C. Brodbeck and William Metzger, both of St. Marys will contest the same thing on the Republican primary ticket. For county treasurer, there have been no republican nominations.

O. W. Langhorst, Wapakoneta and Edwin Kellermeyer will contest the place with the Democrats.

For clerk of courts, John J. Kenney of Wapakoneta and Harry J. Toban of St. Marys are out on the Democratic side of the state. Bert T. Blume of Wapakoneta is the only Republican who has filed. Two Democrats again seek the auditorship. They are Charles W. Niles of St. Marys and Joseph A. Kraback of Wapakoneta. Only one Republican, Fred Becker, Moulton-twp has filed.

For prosecuting attorney, one Democrat, Louis Stout of Wapakoneta and one Republican, Karl Timmermeister, have filed.

When Baby Complains.

THERE ARE MANY WAYS a baby has of expressing any pain or regularity of digestion from its normal condition of health and being constant turning of the head or of the whole body, fretful, restless, or other ways a baby tells you there is something wrong. Most mothers know that a disordered stomach, or bowels that do not act naturally are the cause of most of baby's sufferings. A call for the doctor is the first thing to do in the event of any delay there should be ready at hand a safe remedy as Fletcher's Castoria.

Castoria has been used for baby's ailments for over 20 years and merited the good will of the family physician in a measure not equalled by any other baby's medicine because of its harmlessness and the good results achieved.

And remember this: Castoria is essentially a baby's remedy and a sure-aid for every member of the family. What might help you is too often dangerous when given to a baby. Castoria always bears the signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher.

NEW DISTRICT TO HAVE CONCERT

A free band concert every Saturday night this summer, beginning tonight, has been arranged by the merchants of the "New Retail District."

The concert will be given at the corner of West and Market-sts from 6:30 p. m. until 9 p. m. each Saturday night. It has been announced.

Regular programs varying each Saturday will be given.

MORE RAIN, SAYS WEATHER MAN

In the wee, small hours of the dark, dark night, mother nature vied with the record made by the Big Berthas during the recent world war. Most everyone agrees that her attempt at producing thunder equalled it not surpassed the crash of shells from the German howitzers.

The rain that fell following the thunder, cooled the air considerably.

Now the weather man comes along with a promise of more of the same kind of action. Probable showers and thunderstorms Saturday night and Sunday, he says, with the temperature somewhat lower. The entire prediction will be welcomed, even if it does happen to hit a Sunday.

HUBBY IS FREED; WIFE FORGIVES

Taken on White Slave Charge, Man Is Sent Home.

An aged mother sought her erring son in Lima, found him and took him home with her to Johnstown, Penn., where a young wife awaited him.

The son is Joseph McGreehan, 22, charged by his mother, Mrs. Mary McGreehan, with running away in company of Margaret Shaffer, 22, Johnstown. The mother told police they would be found at 316 N. Scott-st. They were arrested late Friday.

McGreehan was held on a charge of violating the Mann White Slave Act, but the forgiving arms of his wife stretched out to him and prosecution was held up on condition that he return to her. She is about to give birth to a child, the mother said.

Judge Jackson permitted McGreehan to leave for Pennsylvania with his mother. She supplied the money for carfare. The activity was not permitted to leave until a later train. McGreehan supplied the money for her fare, with money loaned him by his mother.

Several revolvers in McGreehan's possession were confiscated. The girl has relatives here. She had been living with McGreehan at a Scott-st rooming house, police say.

One of the conditions of McGreehan's release from prosecution is that he report every 30 days to the mayor of Johnstown, with whom Judge Jackson communicated Saturday.

BERRY VARIETY IS GROWING IN MARKET

Berry variety in Lima markets is growing larger. Blackberries, raspberries and huckleberries have been added to the strawberry and gooseberry list. Cherries are becoming more plentiful and watermelons and The housewife has very little difficulty in making selection of seasonal things for Sunday dinner. Home grown cherries are coming fast. Strawberries of the home variety are still quite plentiful and of excellent quality. Peaches are appearing in greater quantities and tomatoes are more plentiful.

STATES TRIAL POSTPONED BECAUSE SLEUTHS ABSENT

Trial of J. Aaron Stokes, former county commissioner, set for hearing Juvenile court, has been postponed a week. He is charged with contributing to the delinquency of Don, 15, a grandson, by selling the lad whiskey.

Detectives who are wanted by Hamilton to explain why they should not be held for contributing to the delinquency of the same boy, could demand their arrest. The sleuths: persuaded the boy to buy the liquor, it is said.

WIRES DOWN, CA DELAYED

Storm Plays Havoc With Electrical Systems.

MANY PHONES DOWN

Service Will Be Resumed Saturday Afternoon, Report.

The electrical storm of early Friday morning played havoc with utilities in Lima and the surrounding country. Rain fell in torrential downpours.

While no damage was done to the wind, high tension wires were put out of business by the lightning. Cars Saturday morning were at standstill on all interurban lines serving Lima, save the Lima-Springfield division of the Indiana, Columbus and Eastern, and the Western Ohio.

Loss of power caused city cars to be off for three hours Saturday morning, throwing workers who depend upon that service, to be late their offices and places of employment.

O. E. SERVICE HIT
At 11 a. m. the Lima-Defiance and Lima-Port Wayne divisions of the operating cars, but a announced that the general office of the Ohio Electric was to be affected service would be inaugurated by Saturday noon.

At various points on the Lima-Defiance division between this city and Toledo the high tension was put out of business. Service on that division was resumed a little before noon Saturday.

Officials of the Port Wayne, Van Wert and Lima companies and the Ohio Electric declared that by the middle of the afternoon service on all divisions would be restored and the regular schedule of cars maintained.

PHONES OUT
The Western Ohio incurred slight trouble to the first incoming call from the north, due to the Ohio Electric current shortage and was delayed when the power to pull down thru the city was lacking. But otherwise, they have maintained their schedule.

Two hundred telephones were reported "dead" when fuses in cable terminals were blown out by the electrical storm. According to George H. McLeary, general manager, 100 more were reported out of use. McLeary says that by night trouble will be remedied, as repairs are being made rapidly.

ESTABLISH FUND

Legion Sets Sum Aside for Relief Work.

Needy War veterans, members of William Paul Gallagher Post, No. 96, are to be afforded relief thru a revolving fund of $25 voted by the post at a meeting held Friday night.

The fund will be handled by a board of trustees composed of the officers of the post.

Itinerant soldiers who are traveling thru Lima for aid, several speakers asserted. It was decided that it would be impossible to care for them with post funds. Actual members should be taken care of first.

The Legion drum and Bugle corps, and members in uniform will march in the Elks Flag Day parade, June 18.

The Ladies Auxiliary will give a lawn fete and dance at Lincoln Park, Monday evening, June 12. Mrs. O. C. Slater, secretary announced.

ACCEPTS DRY OFFER

STARTING THE FIGHT

FLOURISHING diplomas, the annual crop of school graduates plunges out into the world. The rest of us—sophisticated and more or less disillusioned josh them a lot, much as seasoned veterans josh the new troops marching up for their baptism of fire.

The diploma army comes in the nature of a yearly wave of re-enforcements. With all our joshing of the "commencement orator" who thinks he has the world in the hollow of his palm, we realize that the newcomers are badly needed.

They bring into the general world a wonderful stimulant—pep, enthusiasm, ambitions, determination and, most valuable of all, youth.

We wish the youngsters a safe and speedy voyage to success.

In charting their course, these horse-sense rules will help:

FIRST: Follow the line of work you like best, regardless of obstacles or the objections from others. Rising to success when one's heart is not in his work is like trying to swim with a ball and chain.

SECOND: Remember that an individual, like an army, can lose many battles and still win the war. Do not let temporary setbacks discourage you. They are sent, in the wise scheme of things, to develop your potential powers, to bring out the best that is in you. Dabie Ruth fanned the air thousands of times before he "got the hang of it."

THIRD: Plan far ahead. Youth can take chances. Starting "for next to nothing" where the future looks good is far better than a beginner's job that pays three times as much but has an uncertain future.

FOURTH: There is no short-cut to success. As with our ancestors, success in most cases is the fruit of hard work, patience, everlastingly keeping at it, and recognition that he prospers best who serves others most.

Platitudes? Yes—but, truth eternal!

BE COMFORTABLE

EDISON, the inventor, says the chief reason he can work 18 hours a day without getting "run-down" is because he keeps his body healthy by never wearing tight-fitting clothes. Edison wears baggy suits and loose collars. He never wears tight shoes, a belt or anything that would interfere with the circulation of blood through his arteries.

In other words, he doesn't saw cross-grain on nature. Maybe nature intended the human animal to wear clothes, maybe not. Anyway, she certainly never intended us to wear garments that fit like the casing of a sausage.

In wintertime, on streets of cities that have snow and zero weather, you see flappers wearing silk stockings and shirtwaists with V-necks cut so low they expose the throat to the cold weather and icy wind.

A man, with a high starched collar and woolen muffler around his neck, marvels that the flimsily-dressed flappers fail to die of pneumonia.

The reason is simple: The flapper dresses loosely, allowing her blood to circulate freely enough to keep her warm.

Her grandmother, in girlhood, had to bundle up like an Arctic explorer to keep from catching cold, largely because she cramped her blood circulation and other bodily functions by lacing herself into a wasp-waist corset.

Men, too, are slowly getting wiser—discarding tight starched choker-collars, painful shoes and plug hats that fit the head like iron hoops.

Hygienists believe American women will be health-wise enough to keep their present comfortable way of dressing. Also, they are campaigning to drive some of the same common sense into men.

Men, say the hygienists, should copy the women and adopt clothing that ventilates the body. This is especially advisable in summertime, to permit quick evaporation of poisonous perspiration.

The average person is haunted by a fear of "taking cold."

How about the dangers of "taking heat?"

You have noticed, in the movies, that the savages dress loosely, so the air gets easily to all parts of their skin. That probably is the chief reason they are as hard as nails and as healthy as young wildcats.

REINCARNATION

BOSTON is interested in a woman named Antinea, who claims she is the reincarnation of an ancient Egyptian queen.

Antinea is a movie actress. While her reincarnation claim sounds as if a clever press agent lurks in the background, it is interesting that many millions of people believe they "lived before" on earth. Maybe you wonder, yourself, at times.

It is a fascinating belief, a reaction from the universal desire to escape death or extinction.

The reincarnationists usually are modest enough to admit in previous existences they were Napoleon, Queen Elizabeth and similar personages. You will travel a long time before you find one of the faithful believing that in a previous existence he was a nobody.

WOODSHED

MRS. MILDRED BRANDT, newly elected police magistrate, announces she will hold court in her parlor at home, "to take less time from my domestic duties." This is at Winslow, Ill.

While a parlor may not look as impressive as a dusty courtroom, it is in the home, the original and greatest agency of law and order. For the most part, courtrooms exist to rectify and punish mistakes of early home training.

Many a man looks back to a youthful session in the woodshed, with father's shingle, as his shifting into the path of righteousness. Best when taken in moderate doses.

IMPORTANT

TODAY'S most important news is that the railroads are moving as many cars of freight as during the great business boom of 1919.

It is a remarkable showing, for the coal strike has reduced freight movement 110,000 cars a week.

If coal shipments were uninterrupted now, as they were in 1919, freight traffic would be more than a seventh bigger than during the boom.

It is important news, mighty encouraging, for freight loadings show how much is being produced, how much sold.

Prosperity is returning in the humble box-car.

Abroad, to Anderson's bootery for new heels on my English Oxfords which cost me much money. Yet wearing out the same as the paper ones we used to buy during the war. And the vulcanizing set me back 50c, which I can ill afford. To the poste and received only broker's enthusiastic surveys showing the market will never break. Some stocks "tipped" to double; but methinks, markets always have fractured, and there will be some bone setting before many a day.

To the office whence came John W. Beall, who in ye olden tynes divided the intelligence of Lima at High-st with me. He, to tell all that happened south of that thoroughfare, I to carefully record what was done north of that street. And many strange tales we didn't tell at all, or the falls would have been advertising for kitchen help.

To lunch at the Spot, and saw none of the super intelligentia there seated. The noise not bad and the soup hot at that; dexterity of setting the rhythm. I find people are becoming much more cultured in this Reign of General Byng, working too, as he is, under the handicap of loss of his street superintendent. In the afternoon, saw Bill Fridley who gave me a good recipe against walking too rapidly in the brave sunshine these early summer days. Chatted a bit with George Felts, the banker, now a retired capitalist, and feeling fine. Saw Dan McHugh, the old Buckeye watchman, now at Fau-rot park and lonesome because the Kommish doesn't visit the beautiful acres and menagerie often.

Saw the Kounty Kommish blames all the unrepaired roads on themselves, claiming each has been playing with a Toy. No crime committed as children must be children. So, home to dinner to a good menu.

And in the evening strolled a bit meeting Sir John Blattenberg and Lady Helen out for an airing. Read late o' "December Love" and every-body was happy ever afterward. So to bed, dislodging the summer blanket and raising the north window, my tooth paste having started to boil.

Common Sense Ways to Keep Well

DRINKING WATER

Every summer finds more people going camping or automobiling their vacations.

Careful preparation usually made in advance for these excursions. The right clothing, cool utensils and food are provided, very often no thought is given the water supply. It generally felt that water can be secured wherever.

With the ever-increasing number of campers, fishermen and hunters, a corresponding risk of pollution of streams and ponds. Even springs may be polluted carelessly and thoughtlessly. Water may look and taste good and yet contain typhoid germs. Well in New York last year can more than 60 cases, some in widely different localities. The water tasted good, but a big rain was pollution from the shacks into Automobiles and others drank and fell ill.

So try to get water from spring quite distant from dwellings or camps. When in the least doubt, boil the water for five minutes place it in a jug, well stoppered, a cold stream to cool, carry it with you and use no other.

When you find a really a spring, take good care to keep clean, not only on your own account but for the sake of others. Instead of dipping a bucket or other vessel into it, collect the water at the flow even if a pipe or trough has been constructed.

Waste water should not be thrown into the spring or dumped on ground nearby and all other waste should be buried about 12 inches below the surface of the ground at a place lower than the level of the spring.

POEMS YOU WILL ENJOY

BY BERTON BRALEY

INSPIRATIONS
The poet said, "I will make a sonnet to stir the souls of the surging throng."

To thrill each heart
With its magic art,
Till the world shall chant
The name!

And the song he made was a splendor
Did think,
With a mighty sweep and a glorious swing.

But the world said, "Yes,
It is fine, we guess—
Say, how was the baseball game?"

But the poet didn't especially care
For he had met with a maiden fair
And he wrote one day,
Just a simple lay.

To say that he held her dear:
And the world said, "Gee, that's pretty!"

With a joyous lilt and a tender ring!
And that song was sung
By the old and young
And it echoed around the sphere!

ALWAYS TIRED NO AMBITION

Nervous and Dizzy, Everthing Seemed to Worry Me
How I Got Well

Larwill, Indiana.—"My back was bad I could not do my washing, I was ways tired out and had no ambition, nervous and dizzy and everything seemed to worry me and I had a awful pain in my right side, felt badly about four years and could not do my work as I should have. I saw Lydia's Compound, I saw Lydia's Compound and I bought it and I took it and I felt better and I was able to do my work as I should have. I saw Lydia's Compound and I bought it and I took it and I felt better and I was able to do my work as I should have."

Many women keep about their work when it is a great effort. They are always tired out and have no ambition. When you are in this condition give prompt attention.

Take Lydia's Compound. It is especially adapted to correct such troubles, as it did for Mrs. Long.

Walter Cochran defeated Garth Rice of Spokane, Washington, in an 18-hole match in Los Angeles last night. Cochran had a run of 15 holes in the Pacific Northwest championship. A big event is coming in for the International Intercollegiate A. in Chicago June 16 and 17. One and Northwestern universities have not entered yet. A champion came home alone. No luck from home 'til night, no fish would nibble in their tank. Mosquitoes sure did bite. The Memphis Southern Association team gets Pitcher Red Gausey, formerly of the New York Giants, Georges Carpentier may fight Joe Beckett, whom he put away two years ago. If the fight goes thru it will be staged in London. To date American League batters have hit 168 homers to 133 for the National leaguers.

BOWSHER-REESE REVENGE BOUT IS PLANNED

Dicker For Others

A MONG the tid-bits to be served up by the Lima Gym club on its open air card Fourth of July at Murphy-st park, the pugilistic classic of the year and the culmination of months of labor, will be a "revenge" battle between Don Bowsheer, Lima middleweight, and Marty Reese, the Middletown contender in the middle division. Several weeks ago Bowsheer took on Reese at Piqua and lost to him on what fans termed a fluke knock-out. Don's followers declared he was put out more thru the effects of a fall than Reese's blows. The contention was that he fell forward on his face. Froot in the form of a large bruise on his cheek was brought back, and it was never definitely proven that Reese sent him tottling forward with a swing from the rear.

GOT A KAYO

Reese received credit for a kayo and ever since Bowsheer has been aching for a chance to even up matters. His chance will come independent Day, if the Gym plans to put on. In all probability the boys will be staged in a ten-round semi-final. It is known that when Bowsheer fought Reese in Piqua he was in poor condition, due to his father and other things tending to pull him down physically. But he has regained his old form and when he meets the Middletown boy again he will be "right."

Another ten rounder between "Nubby Joe" Gans of New Orleans and Leo Patterson, Springfield, undefeated colored leather pusher, is being framed. Gans made a great hit here in April when he beat Indian Hornor and is justly acclaimed the champion in colored lightweight circles. Followers of the game say Patterson is capable of beating him. There is considerable doubt, Patterson, who is of the never-say-die type of boxer, should put up a great fight to continue his unbroken string of victories.

KASLER-YOUNG AGAIN

Our well-known friends, Red Young of Lima and Spec Kasler of Delphos, whose ring rivalry is one of the epics of the game hereabouts, may be put on an eight-round debate, Matchmaker Charlie Maxwell said. The two are good wherever they are staged. It is the contention of some bugs that Kasler never will beat Young, but many have changed their minds since the Delphos boy has been stepping out and defeating Toughie Mayne of Toledo and other good boxers.

The main go which will in all probability see Jake Gross and Babe Bream, local featherweights, is set for 12 frames, and with the two tents and the eight fans will see 40 rounds of fighting.

PITCHERS WARM UP; HITS
ARE SCATTERED

CHICAGO—With warmer weather and more work, the major league pitchers are hitting their stride with the result that the sluggers are finding it harder every day to get the ball into safe territory. This is shown by the steady shrinkage during the past week or two in the batting averages of such hitters as George Sisler, Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker, Rogers Hornsby and others.

The youngsters who set the league afire in the first weeks of the season with .450 marks now are getting back to their normal averages of .25 last week to .419 this week, dropping more slowly than the flash-in-the-pan batters, still are rapidly getting down to their usual records.

SIS STILL THERE
Sisler still tops the American league batters today despite a drop from .35 last week to .419 this week, the latter mark including games of last Wednesday.

Sisler cracked out nine hits in his last six games, scored six runs, and stole five bases, and as a result continues to be the whole show, with the exception of the home run attraction. With his twenty-three stolen bases, Sisler is far in front of his rivals on the paths, his closest competitor being Kenneth Williams, who has pilfered seventeen bases.

The late start and slow progress made by "Babe" Ruth, the King of Swat, to retain his honors, has encouraged other players to enter the competition in the hope of topping the "Babe". Ken Williams of St. Louis bagged another homer bringing his string to 14. Ruth has four. Ed Miller of Philadelphia is trailing Williams with 12; Harry Heilmann of Detroit and C. Walker of Philadelphia have eight apiece, while Baker of New York, Judge of Washington and Falk of Chicago, have entered the contest with seven each.

Other leading batters for twenty-five or more games: Stephenson, Cleveland, .416; Ed Miller, Philadelphia, .385; Witt, New York, .372; Cobb, Detroit, .370; Speaker, Cleveland, .369; O'Neill, Cleveland, .364; Schang, New York, .347; Heilmann, Detroit, .339; Bassler, Detroit, .336; Blue, Detroit, .331; McManus, St. Louis, .330; Severide, St. Louis, .328.

HANK ON TOP

First in war, first in batting. This is the honor which has fallen to Hank Gowdy, of the Boston Braves, the first major league player to enlist in the war. Today, he is leading the batters of the National League with an average of .384. Gowdy is nine points ahead of Bigbee of Pittsburgh and Hargrave of Cincinnati who are tied with .375.

Cleveland Club Boss
Dies In Chicago

JAMES C. "SUNNY JIM" DUNN, president of the Cleveland American League Baseball club, who died at his Chicago home June 9 after a few months' illness. His life ambition—to see his team the world champions—was fulfilled in 1920, just two years before his death. Dunn also was organizer of the Dunn-McCarthy Company of Chicago, one of the leading construction companies of the middle west.

INDIANS DEFEAT
FLAPPER CLAN

East End Indians hauled the Flappers over the coals for the second time Friday, handing them a lacing 9 to 5. The redskins collected seven hits, five of them coming in the second inning. Thompson, who came to bat in the second with the score 1-0 in favor of the Flappers, shot one to deep center for the Indians' first homer of the season. He scored Griffin ahead of him.

Later, Miller duplicated the feat. Line-ups and score:

BIFFED AGAIN

Upstreamers, a Lima baseball organization, suffered its second defeat in as many days, Friday when trimmed by the fast-going Bearcats at the McKinley diamond, 11 to 3.

for the runner-up honors. Hornsby of St. Louis, and Griffith of Brooklyn, are trailing for third place honors with averages of .374 each.
Hornsby failed to add to his home run record in his last five games, but is far in front with thirteen.
Max Carey of Pittsburgh continues to lose the base stealers with ten.
Other leading batters for twenty-five or more games:
B. Griffith, Brooklyn, .371; Daubert, Cincinnati, .363; Kelly, New York, .360; Grimes, Chicago, .349; Southworth, Boston, .341; Snyder, New York, .340; Maranville, Pittsburgh, .339; Myers, Brooklyn, .337; Duncan, Cincinnati, .333; Groh, New York, .332; J. PLAN BIG GAME
AT SAN DIEGO

SAN DIEGO, Cal. — Plans of the San Diego Chamber of Commerce for bringing the football team of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis to San Diego for a Christmas Day game with the University of California or some western college eleven were divulged today.

The plans were laid before Edwin Denby, secretary of the navy, and expressed hearty support saying the proposed game would do much to stimulate a morale of navy officers and men and adding that he would confer with Admiral Wilson, commandant of the Naval Academy as soon as he returned to Washington. He also said that if possible the entire battleship fleet would be brought here for the contest. Mr. Denby declared that if the Annapolis team came it would show its toe how to play "real football."

FIVE HORSES FACE
BELMONT BARRIER

NEW YORK. — Five thoroughbreds were ready to face the barrier today in the fifty-fourth annual running of the historic Belmont stakes for a purse of $50,000.

Snob II, J. S. Cosen's imported colt, because of his sensational showing recently in the Withers stakes, ruled a decided favorite.

JEAKLE TO FIGHT

COLUMBUS. — Kayo Jeakle, Toledo lightweight, and Kayo Mars, Cincinnati, have been matched for a 12 round bout to be staged here Monday night, is was announced today.

HOW TO PLAY BASEBALL

Don't Stay Put, Shift for Batter's Style

By BILLY EVANS
American League Umpire and Feature Editor, The News.

It is impossible to lay down any definite lines as to where a second baseman should play. His position is determined by existing conditions.

By existing conditions, I mean the type of batter, whether he is a left or right-field hitter; also the style of delivery used by your pitcher, whether he is a fast-ball pitcher or one who mixes them up; also whether the batsman is known as a hard hitter or one who chops the ball. The speed of the batter also must be given consideration.

With a hard hitter up, possessing only ordinary speed on the bases, it is always advisable to play deep.

With a chop hitter, known to be very fast, it is always wise to play in much closer.

With a fast ball pitcher working, a second baseman can afford to play much deeper than with the "mix 'em up" style of pitcher.

On a bunted ball, down the first base line, if the first baseman goes in to handle the bunt, the second baseman invariably must be ready to go over to first base to take the throw.

The second baseman must always have his wits about him, and go out on short flies to right or center field while his opinion cannot be handled by the outfielders.

Speaking of Hitters,
How 'Bout Jake?

JAKE DAUBERT

JAKE DAUBERT, first baseman of the Cincinnati Reds, at 37 years of age, is making all the younger players in the National League sit up and take notice when it comes to consistent hitting this year.

Daubert this season got away from worst start any major leaguer has made in years.

It was on his twenty-sixth time at bat in his eighth game of the season that he made his first hit in the year.

Once he started, the old boy didn't know when to stop. He erased his seven-game slump with a streak on which he hit safely in 22 consecutive games, making 22 hits in 71 times at bat in those games.

Of 44 games Daubert has hit safely in 42. His hitting has been timely, too, and has played a big part in changing the Reds from the cellar outfit to a contender for the league leadership.

HOW TO PLAY BASEBALL

Don't Stay Put, Shift for Batter's Style

On short hits to left field the shortstop should cover the bag for a possible play, and the second baseman should back him up.

On balls hit to short right field, the second baseman should cover the bag for a possible play on the runner and the shortstop should back him up.

On balls hit to center field, either player can cover and the other back up. A quick decision, however, should be reached between the two players to avoid a mix-up.

On long hits to left field, good for extra bases, the shortstop should go out to take the relay. On long hits to right the second baseman should go out to handle the relay.

On handling throws from the catcher to prevent a steal of second, it is best to stand slight to the left of the bag. As the runner slides in and you make the touch, it is always best to have the legs spread widely apart. This eliminates the possibility of being spiked.

Tomorrow, Eddie Collins, world's greatest second baseman, tells you how to play the bag.

MILLERS CAN'T SHAKE JINX

MINNEAPOLIS. — Can the Minneapolis American association team beat the St. Paul traditional "Jinx" this year?

This question is agitating much discussion among baseball fans of this city, especially since the Saints took the lead in the first two inter-city series played this year.

The Saintly City pennant chasers in the double A. circuit for the past seven seasons have taken a goodly majority of the scheduled games each season from the Millers.

There does not appear to be any plausible explanation for this "hoo-doo." No matter how good a team Manager Joe (Pongo) Cantillon has — and he has had some great pennant winning combinations in his years with the Millers — the Saints always have been a stumbling block and even when the latter are far down in the standings they are more feared by Minneapolis than any other outfit in the league.

Last year Minneapolis was runner-up to Louisville for the pennant. Many baseball followers here attribute the loss of the pennant to the defeats Minneapolis received at the hands of St. Paul, for the latter team won 16 of the 24 games played with the Millers last season.

No-Hit Game Twirled
By Preacher's Son

Wright Steeves, 10, son of Rev. Warren L. Steeves, pastor of First Baptist church, carved his name in the hall of juvenile baseball fame when pitching for the fifth graders of Lowell school, he set down the sixth graders of the same institution without a hit or run, shutting them out 3 to 0 in nine innings.

Jimmy McKee was on the receiving end of Steeves' slants. Dick Pew for the sixth grades allowed eight hits. Jack Slossing caught him.

REAL GROWTH IN BUSINESS SHOWN

Concern Working Three Shifts Daily Reported by Forbes.

BIG CHANGE IN CONDITIONS

Encouraging Industrial Information Gathered, Writer Says.

(By B. C. FORBES)

NEW YORK. (Special). — Is business recovery genuine? In these days of skepticism, it is gratifying to learn of one large industrial company which is working three shifts every week day. Yesterday I ran across W. O. Rutherford, vice-president of the B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company and extracted from him a lot of very encouraging information concerning changed conditions which have been taking place in the rubber industry and about the unusually bright prospects for coming months.

When the general business collapse befell, what happened there? The rubber industry was this. A great many small concerns of miscellaneous goods got into grave financial difficulties. When the standard rubber companies began to reduce their forces very drastically quite a number of trained men were able to pick up these small bankrupt concerns for next to nothing and as raw material was abnormally cheap, they began to supply goods at very low prices. This competition naturally affected the large companies, with the consequence that tire and other goods prices were reduced to extraordinary value. This pin-pricking competition, however, is becoming less and less of a factor, as the big companies simply met the lower prices as they were transient competitors.

What will chiefly interest the public, however, is the extent of the improvement already enjoyed and the improvement within sight for this basic industry. That the rubber industry is a basic industry will be readily realized when it is considered that rubber enters into every form of transportation as well as into many other lines of trade—surgeons' goods, wear, railway trains, goods, cars, airplanes, automobiles, baggages, car engines, water pumps, electric apparatus, building construction, etc., etc.

Read these facts and figures concerning the extraordinary revival of goods which are the most significant and important because they doubtless reflect recovery in the business of other leading rubber companies: Last month's sales increased approximately 150 per cent over April.

Compared with last year, May sales practically doubled. Sales of car tires since January have been double those of the first five months of last year. At this moment sales are running at the largest volume in the company's long history.

Altogether three shifts are worked in the tire and tube departments, fulfilled orders are piling up from big dealers and manufacturers—the company now has 35,000 active orders throughout the country and which are today standard equipment for over sixty different cars.

Export sales this year have been running approximately 400 per cent ahead of a year ago. Footwear sales this year are fifty per cent better than in 1921. The company estimates that June, July and August demands will exceed production by from 25 to 30 per cent, it is making serious inroads on its stock.

Sales of mechanical rubber goods, recorded in the trade as a trustworthy barometer of business, have increased as to require production on some lines within 11 per cent of the peak capacity established in 1919.

Investigations have revealed that the stock of tires are unusually low in the store which the automobile business is now enjoying—a boom which is reflected proportionately in the rubber industry. The whole of Ohio has only about 8,000 cars. The reason? A tax of $412 is imposed. Why? Because, the ruling classes are so anxious to have the ordinary people ride in motor cars. In this wonderful country of ours the day when every industrial workman will be able to afford at least a modest automobile. Production of the lowest-priced cars is greater today than ever before in our history. This means the steady development of a broader and broader market for tires and other automobile equipment.

Who, therefore, can long remain pessimistic over the rubber or automobile industry in this remarkable land?

JUDGE GRANTS WOMAN DIVORCE, MAIDEN NAME

Grace Morgret was awarded a divorce from Charles H. Morgret on the grounds of gross neglect, by Judge Fred C. Becker, at the conclusion of a hearing held in common pleas court.

The plaintiff will resume use of her former name Grace Ashbaugh, and is to receive alimony amounting to $225. She must pay her attorney fees out of the sum.

GOOD HELP IN SUMMER

Indigestion causes worry, nervousness, sick headaches, biliousness, coated tongue, bad breath, bloating, constipation and constant distress. Henry C. Thorne, 1002 Harrison Ave., Boston, Mass., writes: "Since taking Foley's Cathartic Tablets I feel fine." They cleanse the bowels, sweeten the stomach and invigorate the liver. Causes no pain, no nausea. Not habit forming. Just a good, wholesome physic. Chas. J. Vorkamp, Main and McKibben Sts.—Adv.

NEW YORK. — Extensive offerings of oils, motors, coppers, equipments and a wide variety of miscellaneous issues at extreme declines of one to almost five points featured the week-end session of the stock exchange. The decline also took in some of the investment issues, including Union Pacific, Canadian Pacific and Delaware, Lackawanna and Western. Rallies from lowest levels were made before the close on the strength shown by Mexican Petroleum, but the net result showed a preponderance of substantial recessions. The closing was heavy. Sales approximated 700,000 shares.

FOUR ARE GIVEN DIVORCES

Fifth Petitioner Allowed Alimony by Judge Becker.

THREE CHARGE NEGLECT

Alleged Disappearance of Wife Wins Decree for Another.

Divorce was granted in four of five cases heard by Judge Fred C. Becker in common pleas court, Saturday morning. In the other action temporary alimony was allowed the wife for support of herself and child.

Bertha Mitchell was awarded a divorce from Robert L. Mitchell, 1929 W. Wayne st., collector, and the defendant is barred in property rights of the plaintiff. She must pay the costs, however. The right to use her former name, Bertha L. Davis, is restored to the plaintiff. The decree was allowed on grounds of neglect.

SETTLE RIGHTS
Allegations made by Carl R. Lechleiter were dismissed by Judge Becker. He was dismissed from the case for neglecting to appear in court.

Three years ago Celestia Welch disappeared from home, Jack Welch, 1032 Forest av., told Judge Becker. He hasn't seen her since. He was granted a decree.

Alimony of $5 a week was awarded to Stella Brown on a cross petition filed by her against Oliver Brown, alleging gross neglect.

Brown in a petition filed previously made allegation of a similar character. Mrs. Brown told the court the plaintiff has failed to provide for her properly.

TEMPORARY ALIMONY
Temporary alimony of $8 a week and $40 for attorney fees were awarded to Mrs. Nellie L. Mertz, plaintiff in a divorce action instituted against Ernest H. Mertz. Mrs. Mertz testified that she is without support, and has a young child to care for. She is suing Mertz on grounds of non-support.

STOCK AND GRAIN GOSSIP

Foreign news is not of a reassuring sort. The sharp setback in prices seems to have upset the calculation of many of those bullishly inclined and a continuance of the selling movement in the stock market is looked for.

Dunn reports 440 failures in the United States this week against 407 last week and 300 last year.

Twenty Industrials, 93.60; off, 1.51. Twenty active rails, 83.37; off 1.06.

Ten great plant of the Willys corporation at Elizabeth, N. J., was sold at public auction yesterday by W. C. Durant, head of the Durant motors for $5,250,000.

It is beginning to be realized that while there are many fundamental constructive factors in the situation, the inside position of the market seems to be such as to overshadow many other features just now and until there has been a further adjustment in the technical status of the market it is more than likely that values will continue to exhibit downward tendencies. It is still felt that the present time seems to be a favorable one to take profits on long stocks.

According to Washington advices the world faces shortages of wheat which will be felt at the end of this month. Secretary of Commerce Hoover's division made a statement to this effect today, saying "World wheat stocks will be lower than for several years by July 1 as both Argentina and Australia have considerably less than last year. The U. S. carry-over will be light and only Canada has considerable stocks on hand."

Box receipts were 10,000; cattle, 500; sheep, 8,000; left over, 3,500.

Liverpool closed wheat unchanged to a fourth higher; corn, a half higher.

PAGEANT BOOSTERS OUT GETTING COMMITTEEMEN

Tentative organization plans were laid out Friday night by the executive committee in charge of the Historical Pageant to be staged at the fair grounds June 29 to July 1.

Those selected by the committee to head the various divisions of the pageant and to work on the various committees were being interviewed Saturday and their co-operation requested.

WHEAT MARKET IS UNSETTLED

Net Changes in Quotations Are Slight.

CHICAGO.—A reported prospective world shortage of wheat tended to give the wheat market a firm undertone during the early dealing on the board of trade Saturday. The statement made by Secretary Hoover to the effect that the world wheat stocks will be lower than for several years by July 1, as both Argentina and Australia have considerably less wheat than last year, was a factor. The United States carry over was expected to be light and only Canada was said to have considerable stocks on hand. The upward trend of the European consumption also indicated a larger demand than a year ago, whereas, opening prospects for a smaller crop. After opening unchanged to 1-4c higher with July $1.15 to $1.16, and September $1.14 to $1.15, the wheat market underwent a slight setback, then rallied to around the initial figures.

Corn and oats were in sympathy with wheat. The early trading in corn was light, the feature being selling of a small line of September, called to a local trader. After starting unchanged to 1-4c higher with July 62 to 63 1-4, the market suffered a slight setback, which was followed by somewhat of a rally.

Oats started 1-8 to 1-4c higher. July 36 3-8 to 36 1-2 and held close to the initial quotations. Provisions were weaker with lower hog values.

The wheat close was unsettled, with values varying from 5-8c down to a like advance, with July $1.14 to $1.15, and September $1.14 to $1.15.

The corn close was unsettled, 1-8c lower to 1-4c higher. July 62 1-8 to 62 1-4 to 1-4.

MORE AIRING OF LIQUOR CASES

Searchlight of Law Thrown on Four Alleged Violations.

Four cases involving alleged violation of prohibition laws had the searchlight of the law thrown on them Saturday, and two were disposed of finally.

J. W. Lucas and Lee Clements, proprietors respectively of the Lucas and Clements hotels, S. Main-st., pleaded not guilty in criminal court to a charge of possessing liquor and each was released on $2,000 bond. It is the third offense for each, police say.

Eli Brentlinger, restaurant and cafe proprietor, 233 N. Central-av., and his employee, L. S. Reppert, a veteran of the late war, were found guilty and each fined $1,000 after a motion for retrial was overruled by Judge Jackson. The case resulted from a raid May 31. Brentlinger was to arrange for payment and Reppert was released on a $1,000 stay bond, executed by Brentlinger.

According to police, Lucas and Clements were working together and the former was returning from a whisky deal when Lucas ran into Plainclothesman Jess Hargrove, damaging a Ford car which belongs to the officer. Hargrove says he saw the deal take place returning from a trip to the country. Hargrove said he attempted to stop Lucas by getting in front of him, but the latter would not check his car, he said.

Clements was arrested at his hotel 806 S. Main-st. at 11:50 p. m. Friday.

As Lucas appeared for a hearing Saturday Judge Jackson overruled a motion for retrial on a second charge, which has been pending for more than a month. It will be postponed to continue pleas court, as was Lucas's first liquor case, in which he was found guilty and fined $1,000.

His trial on the third alleged offense was set for Tuesday at 10 a. m.

Clements also has two $1,000 liquor fines appealed in common pleas court. Trial on the third charge will be held in criminal court June 21 at 3 p. m.

A THOUGHT

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord; forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.—1 Corinthians 15:58.

Did you ever hear of a man who had striven all his life faithfully and sincerely toward an object and in no measure obtained it? If a man constantly aspires, is he not elevated? Did ever man try heroism, magnanimity, truth, sincerity, and find that there was no advantage in them, that it was a vain endeavor?—Henry D. Thoreau.
